Official Party of Visitors Sent Hungry From McCann's Ship.

COMMODORE RAMSEY GIVES HIS VIEWS

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.) NEW YORK, Aug. 10 .- Advices from Lima, Peru, under date of July 14, contain the following: On Wednesday Admiral McCann and ten of the officers of the American warships Baltimore and Pensacola called upon President Bermudez and were presented by Minister Hicks. The President returned the Admiral's visit on Saturday. He came on board the flagship Baltimore, lying near Callao, in a boat from the Peruvian cruiser Lima, flying two Peruvian flags, and was accompanied by his Ministers of War and Navy, Minister of Finance and four members of his staff in full uniform As the President's boat appeared in the Bay of Callao the yards and rigging of the Lima and Pensacola were filled with men and each ship saluted as the boat passed. As soon as the President reached the quarter deck of the Baltimore and had been pre sented to the Admiral and Captain Schley a salute of 21 guns were fired from the Balti-more and Pensacola, and the Peruvian col-ors hoisted on the foremast of the Baltimore. ors hoisted on the foremast of the Baltimore. The Presidental party was shown through the ship and expressed great admiration for the big guns, the spiendid machinery, electric lights and armament of the Baltimore. Every man and officer on board was in his place on deck, and the handsome ship showed to good advantage. At 4 o'clock the President and his party retired and after a short visit to the Lima returned to Callao. SAD LACK OF COURTESY. A singular feature of the visit was the failure to offer the President and his party any-thing in the way of refreshments. It is customary to offer even ordinary visitors on board a ship some slight refreshment, but this courtesy on this occasion was either overlooked or purposely withheld. A party of ladies from Lima had been invited on board ladies from Linn had been invited on board by the Admiral, to assist in receiving the President, but they were placed on the poop of the ship and were permitted to take no part in the reception. After remaining exposed to the flerce rays of a tropical sun all the afternoon, without an awning and without a chair to sit on, the party returned to Lima, hungry and thirsty, without having met the President at all, and having a poor opinion of American courtesy and hospitality.

The Baltimore went to Sweden last year with the body of Ericsson, and was visited by the King and the Queen of Sweden and the crowned heads of Denmark and Portugal, so that it is not to be supposed that the conduct of the officers was the result of ignorance. The only explanation given is that the officers did not consider the Peruvian President of sufficient importance to justify any further civilities than those required by the articles of war.

AMERICANS HUMILIATED. The affair has deeply humiliated every American in Callao and Lims. It is the nore noticeable because the Peruvians are an exceedingly polite and hospitable people. and the President is a warm friend of the United States.

William S. Clark, an ensign on board the Ealtimore, was tried by courtmartial last week charged with drunkenness. The verlict was sealed and transmitted to the Navy Department, but it is understood that he is issed in disgrace. He is sent home on the Pensacola under arrest, pending the official promulgation of the verdict. Clark is from New Jersey, and entered the navy in

Sa. A dispatch from Washington says: Adiral McCann has gone to New York, but ommodore Ramsay, Chief of the Bureau of avigation, talked freely about the story om Peru that Admiral McCann had failed eru and his Cabinet when they visited the sitimore in Cailao harber on July 11.

A PERTINENT QUESTION. began by ask "When a head of a government, in his capacity as such, visits the vessel of another government, is it the duty of the grovernment owning the vessel or the officers the same, to furnish refreshments?" Government of the United States lees not provide for any such entertain-Another question: "If you visit the house of a friend formally, do you expect him to set out ment and drink? If he returned the set out ment and drink? If he returned the visit would you set out ment and drink?"

"Most assuredly not. Now, the President of Peru called on Admiral McGann officially to return the official visit of the United States officer. No refreshments were served hor expected. It would not have been the proper thing. It was an official call, without an especial invitation, and everything was done that etiquette and custom called for. It is not the custom of the country to give formal callers meat and drink when they return your calls."

CURSE OF FOREIGN PORTS. No one else could have written such to the United States, for they would have known that refreshments on such an would have been surely out of place. No, that is the curse of foreign ports. cople are always hanging about these People are always hanging about these places in hopes of getting on war vessels to get a good square meal, and this story comes from one of these."

The question of naval officers entertaining foreign officials when they called on them on vessels is an old and embarrassing problem at the Navy Department. More than once stories of incivilities have been reported to the Department, but the Department knows full well that it is not the fault of the officers. As Commodore Ramsay says, the Government does not allow any money for such entertainments, and if any are given the officers themselves may for the feast.

It is not often the officers care to personally entertain the Government's guests, and hence these stories. When, however, the officers invited friends or officials personally, and especially then, they know refreshments are expected and are provided for and the bill is met by the naval officers on board the vessel.

Herself Wrapped in Mystery. [SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] BUFFALO, Aug. 10 .- The body of a young woman who committed suicide by jumping in the river at Lewiston on Friday has been fully identified as that of Miss Cora Farth-ing, of this city. Miss Farthing has been employed as housekeeper by A. J. Pierce since April, and it was from his house that she left for Lewiston. She was reported to the police as missing on Friday, but it was not until yesterday that the description of the body found in the river attracted their attention.

Miss Pierce, who has seen a great deal of Miss Farthing since the commencement of her service in her father's house, could not attribute any reason for the suicide.
